Commodore's Message

West Bay Members,

Where to start? Well, let's start with where we sit right now and its only May. Our club is in great financial condition. We continue to grow our membership and we are having a surge in participation on all fronts. We have rejuvenation in our enthusiasm like something we haven't seen in years. It's phenomenal!

What is contributing to this enthusiasm? Let's talk a bit about some changes. First, let's talk house committee. After several years of providing function to our club house, has now taken on the task of working on its appearance and comfort. We're going to clean up our club house a bit. It's a great place that we all enjoy and it's time to make it a bit more pleasing to look at and a bit more comfortable for our own use. Work will begin in May and will be scheduled in a fashion as to not affect negatively any of our regularly scheduled events.

Have you seen our new web page? Everything including the calendars of events is there for your easy access and enjoyment. You can even sign up and pay for all WBYC racing directly on the website. Another new feature for 2013! Check it out and keep informed.

Your 2013 Cruising program is up and running. Get onboard! Cruising is coming back to WBYC in a big way. The launch of the first cruise of the season is Memorial Day weekend. The destination is Ida Lewis in Newport. Contact Liz Richmond, your Cruise Captain for more information. Remember, WBYC is Greenwich Bay's cruising yacht club!

Our 2013 Racing program is also ready to launch. Look for the Race Skippers meeting coming up in May. New this year is "The Around the Bay Race" scheduled on July 20th. This is something exciting for our club. Something new and different! That's Racing! They keep us entertained with new and innovative ideas. Racing 2013, it's fun for the whole family and a staple at WBYC.

Our 2013 Activities Committee has clearly kept the club moving forward. We haven't had an event that wasn't a home run this year! The History of our club has been built around the step up and help philosophy and we clearly walk that path. They're awesome! As you can see, lots happening at WBYC. It's May and we're looking at one of the best boating season starts that our club has seen in many years. Many thanks to our membership for making this happen.

Respectively Submitted,
Dean Travis

Vice Commodore

Cheers WBYC Members,

I am getting very excited about getting out water again. I have seen a number of boats out on the bay and that has added to my desire to hear the rush of water flowing by the stern of the boat. On Sunday, while finishing the last touches of bottom paint, I watched yard 3 large Sailboats; their owners all standing around watching with anticipation. I could over hear them discussing plans to head out for sail later that afternoon. Must be nice!

Alicia and I have been busy planning our summer cruising plans. I am happy to announce that the Pickering's and the Eshleman's are teaming up to host this year's Kids Cruise in June. More details will be posted to the website soon. Please feel free to reach out to us if you have any question. In addition, there will be a sign up sheet posted in the club.

In the meantime, I look forward to seeing many familiar faces over what is expecting to be an outstanding boating season.

Fair winds ~
Jay Eshleman, Vice Commodore – WBYC

Education Committee

For those members and friends who attended our Education Seminars and Presentations this winter I extend a hardy thank you for joining us and participating at these events. More importantly, we are very appreciative of the effort our presenters made to make these events possible and highly informative. Three huzzahs are shouted out for Tonya Ricketts, Todd Johnston, Heath Moldveen, Dave Lodge, Ron Hopkins & to both Paul Shaw and Moose McClintock for re-scheduling their presentations at a later date due to conflicts. Overall, I know everyone had a terrific time learning new skills or fine tuning old ones and in the process-becoming better prepared for the upcoming sailing season.

As a change of pace the Education Committee will be offering additional events throughout the calendar year to further enhance your nautical and general knowledge experience. Topics under review include the following: A 12 week Chess Instructional Course [tournament play included]; Red Cross Certification Course; Basic & Advance Sewing Machine Seminars, Racing Strategies & Tactics seminars, as well as, an enhanced Navigation Seminar. I would appreciate feedback regarding your level of interest in participating at these events and the preferred day of the week [Thursday evenings or Saturday mornings] you would like to attend. Please forward all suggestions and comments to me at the following email address: grantbrandon01@gmail.com

Looking forward to seeing everyone at the Club on Sunday the 5th for the May Breakfast. A must event to attend to say nothing of the “great Brunch” which will be offered!

Best regards,

Grant Brandon

Cruising Committee

Warm weather is finally here. In addition to warm weather, the WBYC cruising scene gets into full swing. I have talked to many of you while (supposed to be) getting our boats into cruising shape. We all agree that this will be a great year for everything water, especially cruising.

In fact, I attended my first impromptu cruising get together on Charley & Nancy Roman's Miramichi along with Jim and Sharon Ward and Rich and Dawn Safton the other day. A good time was had by all as we discussed the coming summer while enjoying the sun on the fantail of Miramichi...and she is still on the hard. Now that is getting the season underway early!

With May comes our first cruise, to Ida Lewis YC in Newport during the Memorial Day Weekend. Eight boats have signed up so far with several more who have expressed interest in attending. See Will & Liz's article elsewhere in this newsletter for details.

Likewise, the 2-week summer cruise also has eight boats signed up and ready to go. There is still time to join this cruise as well, contact Nathan or Mark for details.

As always, you can find details about each cruise in our WBYC Facebook Events page. Each cruise is on the calendar and you can find details about the cruise and RSVP right there. You can also go to the WBYC webpage where we have set up a cruise discussion in the forum section, one for each cruise.

See you on the water!

Membership Committee

Hello Members,

Please welcome our new members, Durga Larkin, MD from Jamestown, RI. Durga currently owns two boats. One is a Rhodes 19 and the other is a 19 foot Lyman wood power boat. Welcome Durga! We also want to welcome Paul and Cindy Tracy from Smithfield RI to our club. The Tracy family has a Beneteau 37 named Siochain. Welcome to West Bay Yacht Club!

The state of our membership renewal drive is as follows: Currently we are at 90% of renewals. More are coming in daily. Renewals are being processed and sent out. If you have not received yours as of yet it will be going to you soon.

Reminder! If you have yet to return your membership renewal, please do so soon and please do not forget to complete and return your membership profile and include the late fee of $25.00. The membership committee is working hard to process all the renewals over the next few weeks. As always, remember to invite your friends and family members to join the fun.

Activities Committee

Our annual MAY

BREAKFAST is scheduled for Sunday 5/5/13. The kitchen crew will be there bright and early with the "Coffee Pot Perkin and the Bacon Fryin"!! So clear your morning calendar and stop by before heading to your boat. The doors open around 8 AM!! Check out the flyer in this month's edition.

The Annual Cleanup will be Saturday, 5/4/13. Please join the House Committee and crew with your sleeves rolled up and be ready to chase a few cobwebs (or any other uninvited guests) right out the front door. There will plenty to do, so bring a friend.

Next month, the Racing Kitchen opens on Monday nights. We're both looking forward to seeing everyone after a long and very snowy winter. Who knows we might even have a few guest chefs this year!!

We always need help or ideas for events. So if you have either one, don't be shy, give us a call.

It's getting close now. We're only four weeks away from our first racing of the year. There is already a WBYC member who has been out sailing regularly. I think he's

House Committee

Greetings from the West Bay Yacht Club House Committee.

We have been working hard over the last few months assessing, surveying, and planning our upcoming improvements and we are ready to get to work! Of course we need everyone's help to achieve these goals.

The first event planned is the annual Clubhouse cleanup day which always occurs on the Saturday preceding the May Breakfast and this will fall on Saturday May 4th this year starting at 9am. We hope to see everyone stop by for a couple of hours and pitch in with some spring cleaning.

The second event and the one I am most excited about is the Clubhouse Improvement Day scheduled for May 18th at 8am. We plan on applying a fresh coat of interior paint on the interior walls, posts beams and possibly the kitchen cabinets. We are also going to reorganize the front room to feel less cluttered. The only way we can reach our goal is with your volunteer help.

Finally, after the tremendous response we received with our March survey, we have set up a special private donation web page to accept funds directed toward the capital improvement projects. The overwhelming need for new tables and chairs was agreed on and all money received through the link this year will go toward this goal. Any donation is welcomed and appreciated. A secure Paypal link was emailed to all WBYC members, if you did not receive it please contact Dave Lodge or myself.

The House Committee is looking forward to seeing everyone in May. Please check your email and respond to the "EVite" request for each event and select "yes, maybe or no" to let us know if you are able to help. You should also be able to respond on our WBYC Facebook page.

Thanks
Matthew Aubee
WBYC Member at Large/House Committee

Our first race, the Spring Tune Up Regatta, is on Saturday, June 1st with the first gun at noon. There is no separate entry for this race. It is open to anyone who has entered any WBYC race in the upcoming season. Two days later we hold the first race of our Monday Evening Summer Series which, as always, consists of 12 races through to the end of August.

This year everyone can submit their entries and pay for their racing online. Just go to <http://westbaysyachtclub.com/index.html> and follow the links to the racing pages and WBYC Race Entry Form. Payments can be made securely through PayPal. For those who prefer, you can still print out an entry form or pick up one at the club and mail or hand it to me along with your entry fee. This year along with individual race entries we are offering three race packages, a Summer Series and all Saturday races package, a four Saturday race package, and an all WBYC races package. The packages offer a significant savings for anyone racing in more than one of our events and overall we have reduced the fees for our racing program. As of this writing we have four entries, two for all our races (and it's still April).

See you all, soon, on the water!

Website

The website is showing increasing traffic as the sailing season draws near. This past month the website showed it's value during the education committee's boat bottom prep event. A WBYC member wanted his boat inspected by Heath Moldveen of Interlux but was unable to attend. The inspection by Heath was videoed and posted on the website. Take a look. It's on the education page. It shows what can be done fairly easily with today's technology.

We can always use your photos and stories. Just email them to me at webmaster@westbaysyachtclub.org and I will use them. I try to make sure that there is new content on the website every week.

Sea Scouts Ship 1909

March and early April was a busy time for our Sea Scouts. First, we planned and manned a booth during the Salt Water Fishing Show in March. Next, getting our two boats ready for an early April launch meant our Scouts had to work over the Easter weekend. Starting early Friday and finishing late Saturday, we were able to sand, paint both bottoms, clean, and wax both topsides. Our next project is to clean the cabins and rig our sails.

Throughout April, during our regular Tuesday evenings we built battle flags for both boats with the help of Tonya Ricketts (The Canvas Lady), a night of seamanship skills testing, a course on navigation skills by Jill Clement and attending Jill's seminar on "Suddenly Alone – What to do when the skipper goes overboard".

Now that May is here, we will begin meeting every Tuesday at 6:30 and spend as much time as possible on our boats. We also plan on helping EGYC during the May breakfast and start planning for the EGYC Blessing of the Fleet and our annual Open House, both to be held in June. Our May Cruise will be to Potters Cove on Prudence Island. Our first "Open Sail" is scheduled for May 21 where you can come visit us and see what we are all about. No boating experience is necessary.

May Schedule:

- May 5 – May Breakfast – EGYC – 8:00 AM - 12
- May 7 – Rig boats & go sailing – EGYC 6:30
- May 14 – Plan May's weekend cruise & advancement – EGYC 6:30
- May 18-19 – Cruise to Potters Cove, Prudence Island
- May 21 – Open sail – Friends and families welcome – EGYC (NOTE: 6:00 start)
- May 28 – Plan Open House (set for June 4 on EGYC deck) – EGYC 6:30

Meetings @ East Greenwich YC (Main Room) Tuesday evenings @ 6:30

Sea Scouts is a coed youth organization for boys and girls aged 14-21. We are sponsored by EGYC and are dedicated to having fun while learning boating safety, seamanship and cruising skills. Our ships are a C&C 24 and a Pearson 26 moored at EGYC. To find out more, visit our Facebook page at "Sea Scout Ship 1909" or call or email Tom Stocker 401-451-9799 rtstocker@gmail.com.

R.I. Marine Companies honored by Sailing World
<http://pbn.com/RI-marine-companies-honored-by-Sailing-World,86580>

BRISTOL – Three Rhode Island companies – J/Boats, C&C Fiberglass Components and Bluenose Yacht Sales – were honored in Bristol on Friday for earning recognition in Sailing World magazine’s Boat of the Year Awards.

Gov. Lincoln D. Chafee and U.S. Sen. Jack Reed joined the state’s civic and marine industry leaders to celebrate the companies’ national recognition.

“The annual Boat of the Year awards are much-anticipated by the marine industry and consumers,” said a release from the R.I. Marine Trades Association. “An independent panel of experts puts new designs launched the previous year through rigorous inspection and sea trials before announcing an authoritative pick of overall and category winners.”

The J/70 from J/Boats and builder C&C Fiberglass Components earned overall honors from the magazine, and the Sparkman & Stephens 30 from Bluenose Yacht Sales and C&C Fiberglass Components won the best daysailer category.

“If you look at a map of our state, it’s not hard to understand why the marine trades have always been one of Rhode Island’s premier economic assets. They are among our state’s oldest and proudest industries, and this legacy continues to the present day with outstanding companies such as J/Boats, C&C Fiberglass Components, and Bluenose Yacht Sales,” Chafee said in prepared remarks. “I offer my congratulations and my thanks for helping to maintain Rhode Island’s reputation for excellence in the marine industries.”

With 400 miles of coastline and its compact size, Rhode Island is a magnet for marine businesses. Traditional and modern boat builders, sailmakers, hardware and component manufacturers, riggers, marinas and other services together form a manufacturing continuum that has created a significant center of expertise.

Joining the senator and the governor as speakers were Peter Van Lancker, president of Hunt Marine Group, who spoke on behalf of RIMTA; David Reed, editor of Sailing World magazine; and George Brengle, director of marketing for Sailing World. Jeff Johnstone, president of J/Boats, and Glenn Walters of Bluenose Yacht Sales spoke to recognize the company teams behind their award-winning boats.

The event took place at C&C Fiberglass Components at 75 Ballou Blvd. in Bristol at 10 a.m. Friday.

2013 Memorial Day Weekend Cruise

Bottom paint completed? ✓. Batteries charged? ✓. Bimini top repaired and cleaned? ✓. It sounds like you might be ready to go cruising! Join WBYC on our first cruise of the year, May 25-27 (Memorial Day weekend) with a scenic and relaxing cruise down the bay to the beautiful town of Newport, RI. We will berth at the historic Ida Lewis Yacht Club for the weekend.

Moorings are $65/night (including launch service). ILYC has asked that we make mooring reservations centrally (don't call ILYC individually). Please email me (richmondea@gmail.com) by May 15th to let me know if you are going. I will need the captain's name, the yacht's name, the LOA and which nights you will need accommodations. Prepayment is required.

Land yachters should plan to join us for the holiday weekend barbeque on SATURDAY May 25th. As in years past, ILYC will host a delicious family cookout in the evening for $20 per person. The menu will include BBQ chicken tips, beef and vegetarian burger bar, grilled hot dogs & sweet Italian sausage, a salad bar and assorted desserts.

Since the early season weather can be unpredictable, we have kept the weekend's agenda is loose. This is why Newport is an excellent destination: it isn't yet crowded with summer visitors but there is a great variety of activities to work with any conditions. In cold or wet weather, you can tour the International Yacht Restoration School or visit the Newport Storm Brewery. In favorable conditions, a walk around town and/or outdoor dining will keep you smiling. On Memorial Day weekend the Atlantic Cup racing will finish in Newport, from Charleston, South Carolina via New York City, followed by an inshore race to end the event.

Join us to shake out your sails, burn some carbon out of your engines and regain your sea legs! This is always a fun weekend and we want to see you there!!
